NEW YORK LETTER

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Little excitement or even interest is to-day being found by the public here in the much heralded lists of published campaign contributions. To exhibit the cash coils of party fuel in the form of dead ashes when all is over is proving little less than a mild form of boredom to New Yorkers, whose active interests have already turned far ahead of Election Day. Careful search of both republican and democratic sources of supply has failed to reveal to anyone here much more than a dry list of solid citizens upon whom it might well be expected calls were made by either party for support. Tammany office holders, Wall Street magnates and social leaders are being found to appear in all the lists, with such accustomed regularity that these rosters might as well be leaves from the Directory of Directors, the Social Register or the committee rolls of the wigwam. Not the scent of a sensation has today been nosed out by even the most confirmed scandal mongers from either camp, and Gotham is regarding its first issue of campaign publicity as a tasteless morsel, well digested and easily forgotten.

RISE FROM ROCKEFELLER.
Keeping more regular hours than any office boy or clerk downtown, John D. Rockefeller is reported by his intimates to be buckling down at his desk, as he has in court, to one of the hardest and most engrossing jobs in all his long business career. It is years since the oily magnate has even condescended to step foot across the threshold of the Standard Oil skyscraper fortress on lower Broadway; but to-day his early arrivals and late departures are disturbing the porters in their night and daybreak watches. Though the country has seen Rockefeller only on the witness chair, squirming through daily sessions of long, hard thrust and parry, those who know the oil king here are still seeing his lank form come and go through the portals of his office at hours that betoken many equally arduous sessions at his desk behind the scenes. A padded motor car has formerly conveyed the head of "the system" on his rare visits to his headquarters, but to-day haste and hurry-calls often subject him to the bruising rush of the subway. Whatever the court may do to Rockefeller, New Yorkers are chuckling over the strenuous life which its recesses are making him lead.

METROPOLIS MOURNED.
All sporting, theatrical and night-roving New York is to-day seeking sadly some new axis about which to revolve, now that the good old Metropole has just been doomed to business instead of social uses. About Park Zoo, died last night of pneumonia and old age, he being 20 years old. The tiger was brought to Chicago 15 years ago from India and was known as the finest specimen of his kind in captivity. He was a man-eater.

swept clear of the Bohemian crowd that has for a generation made them its Mecca is a blow to the more ancient Broadway society. When ordinary business invades the venerable brownstone pile and its cheerful lights are forever dimmed for pleasure seekers a great void will be created in the upper tenderloin for multitudes of horsemen, actors and sports. Never and more gilded establishments tower all about the squat little Metropole; but it will be years before any or all of them really take its lace.

CURE IT IN ONE DAY.

Coughs and Colds Disappear Like Magic When Hyomei is Used.

If the thousands of people who suffer from hacking coughs and agonizing colds would arouse themselves sufficiently to follow this advice, they would cease to complain within 24 hours.

Here is the advice, if you take it and you are afterwards sorry that you did, it won't cost you a penny. Go to T. F. Laurin, the druggist, and purchase from him a Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) outfit. It will only cost you $1.00. Take it home; use it according to directions, and if it does not cure your cough or cold, take it back and T. F. Laurin will refund the purchase price.

When you use Hyomei you don't swallow nauseating drugs. You simply breathe in the soothing, pleasant and antiseptic Hyomei air through the little pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit. As this medicated air passes over the inflamed parts, relief comes almost at once, and cure follows.

Mary E. Bennett, Peru, Ind., writes: "I cannot speak too much in praise of your Hyomei treatment for catarrh. I have been using your remedy for about two weeks, and I have found more relief in that than anything that I have ever tried. I have spent dollar after dollar getting medicine of the doctor for a troublesome cough which I had, and have tried all kinds of cough syrups and cough tablets, and Hyomei is the only remedy that reached the spot. I had given up in despair, but I feel so much better now that I feel as though I have a new lease on my life."

Hyomei is also guaranteed by T. F. Laurin to cure catarrh, croup, grip and asthma and all diseases of the nose and throat.

OLD TIGER DIES.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Big Ben, the Royal Bengal tiger of the Lincoln hotel in all Gotham have these circles centered so long or so closely as this battered old caravanserai which is now the only real old landmark left to Longacre Square. The announcement that its cafes, lobby and cosy dining rooms are to be

WARRENTON NEWS

FAT FRYING.
WARRENTON, Ore., Dec. 1.—From Billy Muldoon's strenuous sanitarium up at White Plains tidings of the wonders that are being worked upon the vast physical expanses of "Big Tom" Foyel and Gene McGuire, the fat men of Tammany Hall, are to-day setting the tongues of the politicians in this town wagging. In Elihu Root, it is conceded, the burly Muldoon had a job too comparatively easy to be considered in the same class with the reducing of the mountainous flesh of this Gotham sheriff and his fellow Tammany boss. Only by tackling such a subject as Taft can the fat-drying manipulator of Westchester equal in Tammanys estimation the feats which he purports to have performed in reducing these weightiest of Murphy's statesmen. When "Big Tom" Foyel lives, moves and butters his vest, as the rumor asserts he now does, local political sharps are prepared to believe the age of miracles has returned.

MELVILLE'S NIGHT.
Almost every American who reads these lines has at one time or another seen over the sawdust ring of the circus the familiar figure of Frank Melville, who is to-day being buried from the Hippodrome where he died in harness a few days ago. As acrobat, bareback rider, ring master and animal trainer this veteran of the big top shows had amused audiences the country over since the Civil War. What Frank Melville couldn't do with a horse simply couldn't be done, and his powers of animal suasion have smoothed out many a tangled performance under canvass. Gotham has laid away many a man of note, but none more really loved and known than this good old master of the show ring.

Saturday evening the schools of Warrenton gave an entertainment in Warren's Hall to make a payment on their new piano. The receipts were Mrs. Emma C. Warren, School Superintendent was in Warrenton Saturday evening, to attend the entertainment given by the school children.

Mrs. H. C. Thompson and little daughter are guests of Mrs. D. K. Warren.
J. J. Bacher has joined his family in their new home in Portland. Mr. Bacher has been employed in the A. & C. R. shops for nearly two years.
Miss Gladys Trimble is spending the Thanksgiving vacation here with her parents Mrs. E. L. Shont is a guest of Mrs. S. S. Munson.
Dr. Owens-Adair returned from her Thanksgiving holiday on Monday.

POPE IS ILL.

ROME, Dec. 1.—While the pope's physicians declare tonight that the cold from which his holiness is suffering is following a normal course, yet they expressed anxiety on account of his weakness.

AN UNHAPPY WOMAN.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 1.—A woman, apparently about 35 years of age, who registered at a local hotel yesterday under the name of Mrs. Schmit, Hot Springs, Ark., committed suicide early today by swallowing carbolic acid after administering a portion of the drug to a child of seven years who accompanied her. Among her effects were found the address of N. P. Errington, 242 Schiller street, Chicago, and a life policy made payable to Nicholas Errington.

Considerable jewelry and over $600 in cash was found among the woman's effects. The condition of the child is critical.

LILLIAN GRIFFITH, WITH ERWIN BLUNKALL IN THE DEVIL

$43.15 so the entertainment was a success financially—and the children carried out their parts admirably reflecting credit to themselves and their teachers. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lee and Mrs. McCready have been untiring in their patience with the little folks, for it was the little folks only that took the leading parts. Bennie Lee, aged 7, was the star of the evening, his make up, and his acting as the little dorkie, "ebony-face" were perfect, and elicited much applause.

The entertainment was an opera in three acts entitled "The Pixie's Triumph" or "Commotion in Fairyland."

The characters were as follows, Jewel Scissors, (Pixie King) Clyde Lee; Know All De-Little, (King's Executive) Richard Bowman, Laughing Gas, (Court Physician) Jesse Bowers; Stay Behind (Leader of Army) Barton Rogers; Ebony Face (Court Jester) Bennie Lee; Fatima (Queen of Fairies) Runa Sigurdson; Franchon (Queen's Chief Associate) Nelly Coffey; Golden Hair (Queen's Dancer) Helen McCready; Chorus of Fairies; Ollive McCready, Elsie Bowman, Marion Warren, Margery Barnhart, Jennie Haggman, Stella Kindred, Clara Morast, Ruth Harrison, Agnes Laraby, Elizabeth Boschart, Hazel Harmon, Luetta Loomis, Chorus of Pixies; Gerald Malarkey, Walter Sigurdson, Rupert

COULDN'T STAND IT.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—Within an hour after having buried her husband, Charles E. Tomlinson, in Evergreen cemetery, today, Mrs. Anna Tomlinson, aged 27 years, returned to her home at 1371 Wall street and in the presence of her children took a large quantity of morphine. Then with a handkerchief saturated with chloroform she fanned herself until she became unconscious. She was found half an hour later by her sister, Mrs. E. L. McCann of Ontario, who had come to take her and her children home with her. Dr. Albert Scholl was called and worked over her four hours, but she died without regaining consciousness.
